

Jeb Taylor Collection
Goldendale, WA

TJ05

ITEM: Hand dag with beaded sheath and bandoleer strap

NUMBER: 592

DESCRIPTION: Hand dag has a hand-forged iron blade secured to a wooden handle with molten lead, which is also embellished with lead inlays. sheath and bandoleer are made of native tanned hide and red and black trade cloth embellished with white crow beads

DIMENSIONS: 28 1/2" overall

CONDITION: Hide is hardened, minor bug loss of trade cloth, otherwise, near fine

PROVENANCE: Creek

LOCATION: Northern Florida, Georgia, Alabama, or Southern Tennessee

AGE: 1830's

COLLECTION HISTORY: Purchased from Bradfords Auction Gallery on 11/11/2023

Signed _____

J. Taylor

The above evaluation is based on my experience and knowledge to date.